

Newsletter March 2024

On Monday, March 25, the HOLI party was celebrated, the beginning of the new year. Holi also means the victory of good over evil and that of spring over winter. People wear white clothes and wish each other Subh Holi and then the cheerful color party can begin.

Holi brings thousands of people to the streets who decorate each other with colored powder

Holi in the Saraswati orphanage... and with Ramesh and his foster family

Prakash has discussed future options with Sabitha and her mother. In about a month and a half, she indicates which study she wants to follow in Kathmandu.